

Lewes in Bloom

August Beauty Spot

Congratulations to Pam Rankin, the LIB Beauty Spot winner for August.

Pam has created a private sanctuary in her backyard on Savannah Road. Tall specimen trees planted in memory of loved ones, sculptural elements and creative containers highlight the space.

September Beauty Spot

The garden of Ellen and Ken Schnabel is the final Beauty Spot Winner for 2021. Containers and perennials are used to great effect in their yard. Ellen reduced her use of annuals in pots and now she donates her "annuals money" to area food banks and shelters

Enjoy them because they will soon be gone

Lewes in Bloom is 20 Years Old

At a reception held recently, Lewes in Bloom celebrated their 20th anniversary. Local dignitaries as well as several of the original members attended. The festivities will continue all year. More information is available on our website <https://lewesinbloom.org/>

Tulip Appeal

Lewes in Bloom's Tulip Fundraiser appeal has been a great success. Thank you to all who have contributed to this cause. Next spring when the tulips bloom, remember that we could not have done it without your support!

Lewes in Bloom Wreath Sale

Here at Lewes in Bloom, we are always planning ahead. We will begin taking orders for our annual wreath sale October 15. We are really excited about the wreaths this year as they will be supplied locally. The wreaths will be made with a variety of greens to provide more interest, decorated with pinecones and will come with a lovely weather-resistant red velvet bow. Two sizes will be available - 24" for $50 and 32" for $70. For more information, please go to our website <https://lewesinbloom.org/>.

Fall Decorating

In early October, downtown Lewes will be turned into a fall scene right out of the Hallmark Channel. The areas that will be decorated are Citizens Bank, Mary Vessels Park, City Hall, 1812 Park and the planters on Second Street. Take a stroll through downtown and enjoy the scenery.

Wait until you see what we have planned for the Holiday Season!!
